Easter

(a counting rhyme)

Five little Easter eggs, lovely colours wore,
mother ate the yellow one,
then there were four.

Four little Easter eggs, two and two you see,
daddy ate the green one,
then there were three.

Three little Easter eggs, before I knew,
sister ate the red one,
then there were two.

Two little Easter eggs, oh what fun,
brother ate the blue one,
then there was only one.

One little Easter egg, see me run,
I ate the purple one,
then there were none.

A rabbit

(an action rhyme)

use your hands and feet

Can you make a rabbit with two ears, so very long?

And let him hop, hop, hop about on legs so small and strong.

He nibbles, nibbles carrots
for his dinner every day.

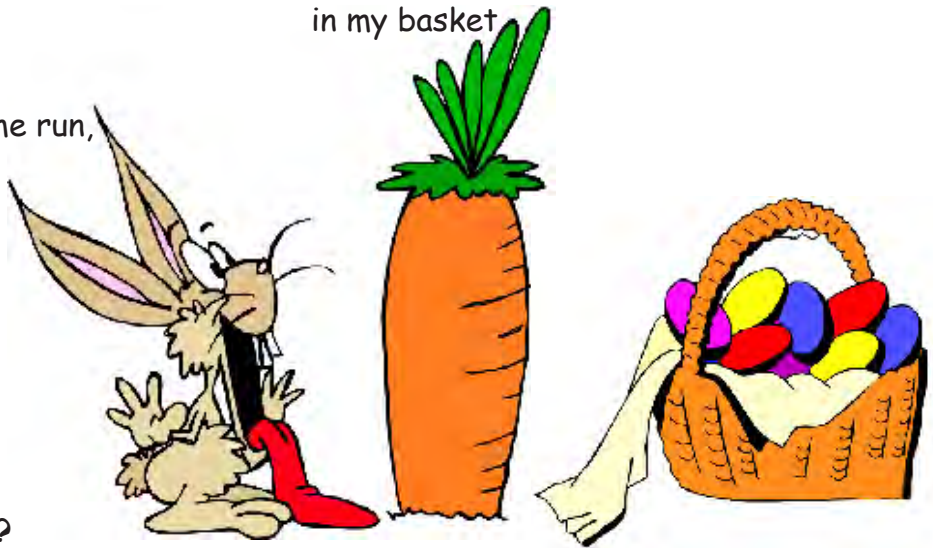

As soon as he has had enough
he scampers fast away!

Ten little eggs

Sing to the tune of „One little,
two little Indians“.

One little, two little,
three little Easter eggs,
four little, five little,
six little easter eggs,
seven little, eight little,
nine little Easter eggs,
I have ten little Easter eggs
in my basket

Easter rabbit

Sing to the tune of „Frère Jacques“.

Easter rabbit, Easter rabbit, where are you? Where are you?
Bring me please some Easter eggs.
Bring me please some Easter eggs.
Green, red and blue. Green, red and blue.
